

The Story of God | Sacrifice

Sacrifice | Story

Story from... Genesis 22

You won't believe what happened next.

God gave Abraham a test. He called out to him, "Abraham!"

"Yes, I am listening!" he replied.

God said, "I want you to take your son Isaac, whom you love, up to the top of the mountain and offer him as a sacrifice."

The next morning Abraham got up early, saddled up his donkey, and chopped some wood for the offering. After everything was ready, Abraham and his son Isaac took two of their servants and set out for the mountain.

About three days into their journey, they saw the mountain in the distance. Abraham told his servants, "Stay here—Isaac and I are going up the mountain to worship, then we will come right back." Abraham took the knife and the fire from the servants and he placed the wood for the sacrifice on Isaac's shoulders.

As they were walking up the mountain, Isaac became curious and asked, "Father, we have the wood and the fire, but where is the lamb we are going to sacrifice?"

Abraham told him, "God himself will provide a lamb."

When they arrived at the top of the mountain, they built an altar and placed the wood on it. Then Abraham tied Isaac up and laid him on the altar over the wood. He took the knife and lifted it up to kill his son as a sacrifice to God.

At that moment the Angel of God shouted to him from heaven, "Abraham! Abraham!"

"Yes, I'm listening!" he replied.

The Angel said, "Put down the knife. Do not hurt your son. It's clear that you trust me because you didn't hesitate to give me what you love the most."

Then Abraham looked behind him and saw a ram with his horns caught in a bush. He caught the ram, and offered it to God as a substitute for his son. So Abraham named that place at the top of the mountain "God Will Provide".

Soon after that, God said to Abraham, “Because you didn’t refuse to give me your son, whom you love, I will bless you greatly! Your family will multiply into millions—like the stars in the sky and the sand on the beaches! Your descendants will defeat their enemies on every side. The entire earth will be blessed through your family—because you chose to obey me.”

Then Abraham and Isaac went down the mountain, met up with their servants, and returned home.

I’ve told you a lot so far. Let me ask a few questions...

Sacrifice | Dialogue

Remember this is a dialog, not a quiz. The “answers” below each question are there to help you as a leader guide the discussion toward some key ideas.

What does this story show us about Abraham?

His relationship with Isaac? His relationship with God?

Abraham had a special relationship with God—chosen as the blessing.

Abraham had faith that God would keep his promise.

Abraham loved his son. Abraham listened to God (and his angel).

What did Abraham say to his servants? (we’ll be right back)

What does this story show us about Isaac?

What was Abraham risking in order to obey God in this story?

The promise of God blessing the entire earth through his descendants.

Where have we seen sacrifice before in the stories? Why did people do this?

What is God teaching through these sacrifices?

God providing clothing from animal skins for Adam and Eve.

Noah’s sacrifice to express thanks to God and acknowledge him as the provider.

Noah: after the flood God made it clear that life is in the blood.

Isaac: God provided an animal as a substitute—life for life.

What does this story teach us about God?

He provides for his people. He tests people’s faith. He desires to bless us.

He is the source of all grace. He keeps his promises.

Sacrifice | Additional Dialogue

Would you obey God if he asked you to do this?

What is the greatest gift you’ve ever given someone? ...ever received?

Have you ever had to do something in life that required a lot of trust in someone else? What was it and how did it turn out?